Editor Register—I am sending to you a few lines that I would like for you to put in the REGISTER.
I joined the army June 23d, 1916, and I have been in camp ever since. I have lived several different kinds of lives and I have never found any kind of a life that I liked better than I like a soldier's life.

There are about fifty men in the Company that I am in. I belong to one of the happiest companies in the Regiment, or in the camp.

I belong to Co. K, 1st Kansas Infantry. The Colonel says that the 1st Kansas Infantry is the best in the United States. We get letters from all over the country giving us compliments on being so happy and jolly on our march to the border of Mexico. I think I will go across the border before I go back to Kansas.

Well, I don't know much to write this time. I will try to do better the next time I write.

Yours truly,
Private, HARLEY S. KEMP,

A "Progressive" Dinner.

At a dinner given by Congressman McKinley of Illinois in the City of Washington to Chairman Wilcox, of the National Republican Committee, the following were present: Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, Senator Smoot of Utah, Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, Congressman Cannon of Illinois, Congressman Mann of Illinois, Congressman Fordney of Michigan and others.

During the gustatory proceedings a very hearty telegram was read from Mr. Hughes, regretting his inability to attend.

The gentlemen participating were the very identical characters who four years ago were so roundly denounced by the Progressive party's leader as "porch climbers," "malefactors," "burglars" and "crooks." Yet they are the mainstays of the candidacy of Mr. Hughes, who not only sits at the same table with them politically but leans upon them in all matters pertaining to the direction of the campaign. Is it not a wonder that Progressives are not enthusiastically and overwhelmingly lining up? Perhaps, however, on some future occasion there may be a dinner at which some of their number may be invited to sit.

Franklin Association closed Saturday.
(The Des Moines Sun.)

The 84th annual session of the Franklin Baptist Association closed Saturday afternoon after being in three days' session at the Baptist Church at Leadwood. The meeting of the association was a great one. Large crowds attended both day and night sessions. Prominent preachers from all over the state were present and took part in the discussions of the various topics. The Leadwood folks certainly know how to entertain visitors, as many of the families carried as many as fifteen guests through out the three days and it seemed with all ease. The next session will be held with the Flat River Baptist Church.

State and Federal Laws Conflict.

The regulations just issued at Washington by Secretary Houston, of the Department of Agriculture, designate the open seasons for hunting migratory birds under the new Federal migratory bird law, will not carry any good news for the sportsmen of this section who have been aiding in the fight made against the Federal law to obtain spring shooting.

The new regulations designate the open season in Missouri as opening on September 16 and closing on December 31. The same season applies to Illinois, Kansas, Nebraska, The Missouri game law on geese and brant designate the open season as extending from September 15 to April 31, in conflict with the Federal provisions.

Under the biological survey regulations all insectivorous birds are protected indefinitely under the secretary's order and protection until September 1, 1918, is provided for bank-tailed pigeons, cranes, wood ducks, swans, curlew, upland plover and smaller shore birds.

Open seasons for other water fowl, coots, gallinules, jacksnipe, black breasted and golden plover, greater and lesser yellow legs, rails and woodcocks are defined state by state.

Drink Sour Milk.

Many people have a prejudice against sour milk. Nevertheless during the past few years it has come into great popularity in the United States. This has been largely due to the influence of Professor Metchnikoff of Pasteur Institute in Paris, whose death was recently announced, says Dr. M. P. Ravenel of the department of preventive medicine of the University of Missouri.

Metchnikoff made many studies on the prolongation of life, and came to the conclusion that one great cause of death was decomposition of food in the intestinal tract and absorption of the poisonous products. It is a known fact that many nations of the world, especially of Western Asia and Eastern Europe, look upon sour milk as an essential part of their daily diet. Among the Bulgarians, who use sour milk habitually, an unusual number of very old people is found. Metchnikoff believed this was due to a large amount of acid milk used and showed that by introducing the milk bacteria in milk the bacteria which is found normally in the intestinal tract could be driven out and replaced by those given.

Tablets containing the acid forming germ of sour milk dried on some inert medium are for sale on the market, and have achieved a great success. They are used now by physicians largely in the treatment of disorders in infants.

Sour milk, whether buttermilk, skimmed milk or whole milk, has much to recommend it.
It is a nutritious and wholesome diet for any time of the year, but it is especially good during the summer months. It often produces markedly good effects in old people who suffer from indigestion.

A Five Years' Record.

A Test That Must Impress Register Readers.

Five years is a long time. A rigid test of merit.
Mrs. Mayes testified over five years ago.
She now says the results were permanent.
Can Ironton ask for better evidence?

Mrs. Frank Mayes, Ironton, gave the following statement in October, 1911: "Kidney and bladder complaint came on me and I couldn't control the kidney action. I was unable to stoop or lift on account of the pain and bearing down feeling in my back. I doctored and used different remedies, but the use of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me much relief. This medicine has my highest endorsement."

A LASTING EFFECT.
On July 15, 1916, Mrs. Mayes said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me has been a lasting one. I have had no return of kidney trouble." 50c, at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
